BOSTON'S, THE GOURMET PIZZA
SIGNS ON AS OFFICIAL PIZZA
OF THE MARK CHRISTOPHER CHARITY CLASSIC

RANCHO CUCAMONGA – The Mark Christopher Charity Classic announced that Boston's The Gourmet Pizza has signed a three-year agreement with the popular Nationwide Tour event to become the Tournament's "Official Pizza".

Terms of the agreement were not disclosed, but as part of the relationship – which will extend through the 2008 tournament – Boston's The Gourmet Pizza will manage and provide pizzas and other delicacies at concession areas throughout the week.

In addition, the company will provide pizza for contestants, media and volunteers on Friday of tournament week. Patrons to the Corporate Skyboxes will also find a Boston's The Gourmet Pizza in the skyboxes as part of the "Taste of the Inland Empire."

"We are delighted and honored to be selected as the Official Pizza of the Mark Christopher Charity Classic," said Lander Bowkers, Vice President of Operations for Boston's The Gourmet Pizza. "This event is one of the premier events in the Inland Empire and we are excited about the relationship."

Stephen Wagner, the Tournament's Executive Director, said the agreement will add a dose of spice to a tournament menu already rich in variety and flavor.

"The fans are in for a real treat to see how Boston's The Gourmet Pizza will revitalize and change the traditional tournament concessions areas with their gourmet pizza and other specialty items," he said.

About Empire Lakes Golf Club

Set among the surrounding San Gabriel Mountains in Rancho Cucamonga, with vineyards and lakes framing several holes, the Arnold Palmer-designed Empire Lakes Golf Club opened in 1996 and nearly immediately, vaulted to elite status among Inland Empire public courses. The 18-hole championship course is owned and operated by Oak Creek Golf Ranch Golf Club Inc., which purchased the club from General Dynamics Properties in February 2004.

In 2000, Empire Lakes became the host course to what is now the Mark Christopher Charity Classic. In 2004, the tournament boasted two holes (No. 6 and 12) rank among the most difficult 20 holes on the Nationwide Tour.
