

ADDITIONAL VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR CHRYSLER CLASSIC OF TUCSON

The Tucson Conquistadores are recruiting men and women to serve as volunteers for the Chrysler Classic of Tucson. The annual PGA TOUR golf tournament is February 19-26 at Omni Tucson National Golf Resort and Spa in northwest Tucson.

Interested persons should be available two or more days during tournament week. Knowledge of golf is helpful. Transportation from designated parking areas to the course and meals are provided. A $65 uniform fee per volunteer includes a tournament shirt, jacket and hat or visor.

The Tucson Conquistadores currently has a roster of 500 volunteers. "Volunteers are crucial to the operation of the tournament, and to keeping our operating costs in line so that we can raise more money for our charities," said Peter Aronoff, volunteer committee chairman for the Tucson Conquistadores. The nonprofit civic group expects to raise $1 million through this year's Chrysler Classic of Tucson. Since 1962, the Conquistadores have contributed over $14 million to youth organizations, teams and individuals.

For information on volunteering for the Chrysler Classic of Tucson, call (520) 571-0400 or (800) 882-7660.